Note that the following documents cited on the Information Disclosure Statement of 9/29/03 do not appear to be relevant to the claimed invention and have not been considered: 4,030,039, 4,030,392, 4,879,932, 5,005,458.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 8 depends from claim 8.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eckert 4,022,517.

Eckert shows dunnage 18 for supporting products in a box 10, the dunnage including upwardly facing product receiving and supporting portion 61, 62 (figure 8), downward rigidifying portion 63, 64, and supports 66 for attachment to side walls 16 of the box.

Claims 1-7 are allowed.

Claims 10-13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 8 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

The prior art does not disclose a shipping container including a box having four walls; dunnage arranged in the box and extending between two side walls, the dunnage including upper plastic strips having product receiving openings, and lower reinforcing strips; the walls having supports for removably supporting the dunnage out of contact with adjacent upper or lower layers of products.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
